Bisons Are Unchecked in Their Hustle for First Place.

MINERS TOOK TWO FROM GRAYS

The Champion Batsmen Couldn't Connect with the Curves of Harper and Gillon--Wilkes-Barre Dropped Two Games to the Springfield Ponies and Today the Latter and Scranton Will Battle for Second Place.

Buffalo by winning Saturday and yesterday gets a firmer hold on first place while Springfield and Scranton by winning two Saturday games appear wedged together in second position.

MINERS TAKE TWO.

Griffin's Men Bow Over the Champion Grays in Saturday Afternoon's Double Bill.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Providence, R. I., May 15.—There is joy in the camp of the Scranton Miners in this city today. It was arranged yesterday afternoon to play two games and thus make up for one of the two prevented by rain on Thursday and Friday.

Twenty-two hundred disappointed spectators saw it happen. Harper pitched the first game and gave but three hits. Gillon was in the box in the final struggle and kept the Grays from scoring in all but one inning.

FIRST GAME.

Providence in the second inning secured the first run on a hit and steal by Lyons, a wild pitch and Honner's error. It was the only run that fell to their portion.

Meanwhile both Harper and Braun, who was in the box for the home team, were pitching good ball, though the miner batsmen were showing the greater inclination to hit. Peter Egan connected safely in the eighth for one base and O'Brien was hit by a pitched ball.

When it was all over, Harper had pitched a remarkable game. He was a little wild, but was well supported. He struck out seven batsmen and gave but three hits. Score:

SECOND GAME.

The Grays tried to change their luck by going first to the field and the scheme almost worked successfully. Egan saving the game for the miners by putting the ball over left field fence with two on the bases.

Scranton's first run was by O'Brien who got a walk in the first inning and scored on hits by Beards and Daly. In the third inning Egan singled and scored second. He was out at the plate while trying to score on O'Brien's hit, O'Brien reaching second on the play and coming home on Daly's hit.

Errors by Bonner and Massey spoiled chances to retire the side in the last half of the third and the bases filled. Lyons hit a high fly over left field fence and the Grays were two runs to the good.

The home club's lead didn't last long, however, for in Scranton's half of the next inning with two on bases Egan duplicated Lyons' feat and gave the miners a lead of one. O'Brien's hit, a base on balls to Beards and Daly's single brought in the final tally.

From fourth in the ninth inning neither side was able to score. The detailed diagram:

element not included in his make-up—for the tendency toward a prejudiced regard for the Stars commenced the moment Buckenberger was engaged by proprietor Kuntzsch--Wilkes-Barre Record, No. 10, will it require anything more than Buckenberger's own tactics to create on the circuit the knowledge that he is the king pin of his team's ruffianism. In response to a civil and gentlemanly question by Manager Griffin, Buckenberger said in the presence of his players: "O, you go to hell!" We have a sneaking idea that the remark will travel back and down Buckenberger's crew before the season is over. On base ball managers the purity of the national game largely depends, but note Pittsburgh, Toronto and now Syracuse teams managed by this Buckenberger, and then, thank goodness, there are few like him.

Joe Bernstein the Loser. "Joe" Bernstein, the New York boxer, who recently appeared in this city, was defeated in a Saturday night bout in New York city. The Sunday Herald says of the event: "The three bouts scheduled for last night at the National Sporting club, St. Nicholas avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, went the limit in each case, and were productive of good fights. The main bout of the evening, between 'Billy' O'Donnell, of Memphis, and 'Joe' Bernstein, of the Bowery, resulted in a carefully won victory for the former, who never tried until the last two rounds, when he made a mark of his man, placing left hook and right swings at his pleasure. The Bowery champion was very much out-paced in the last five rounds."
